November 13, 2013

Section 1 Introduction

A one day Housing and Welfare Benefits Workshop was organised on 13th of November 2013 at the Salvation Army Hall in Plumstead, London. This workshop was attended by 84 people from Nepalese/ Gurkha community people. The workshop was started at 10 AM and finished at 3 PM.

Laxman Sah, Chair person of CESI welcomed the participants, resource person and provided a brief introduction of the project funded by The Big Lottery Fund - Reaching Communities. Chair person explained the objectives, outcomes and the activities of the project.

CESI organised this community event especially for the Nepalese Gurkha people, as part of "Greenwich Nepalese Integration project" awarded by Big Lottery Fund - Reaching Communities. The community event was organised to provide Nepalese people with an opportunity to discuss issues related to Housing and Welfare Benefits with the Statutory and Voluntary organisation officials. The main speakers were Ms Caz Colclough and Jane Hayball and from Royal Borough of Greenwich. The event was facilitated by Arka Raj Timisina- Project Administrator of CESI.

Event Aims and Objectives:

The main aims and objectives of the workshops were:

- to provide a forum for Nepalese people to air their views on the issues related to Housing and Welfare Rights;
- to provide service of translator/interpreter to make participants fully understand their queries and concerns over issues raised;
- to encourage discussion and consideration of all viewpoints;
- to accurately record the response of event participants.

Agenda for the community event was prepared taking in to account that effective consultation/discussion should recognise that individuals will have different interests and concerns which they will want to explore and everyone should have the opportunity to express their views and have these recorded.

Registration, Tea & Coffee

During registration participants were given a pack which consisted of a set of event agenda, copy of handouts of presentation and event evaluation form. Refreshments were served.

Section 2: Event Presentation

Project Administrator gave a brief introduction and objectives of organising this event and also discussed the agenda for the event. It was also explained that a Question and Answer session would take place at the end of the presentation.

Presentation session

3.4 Question and Answer (Q&A) Session

A 30 minutes Q&A session took place at the end of the presentation. Most of the participants raised their issues and concerns related to Housing and Welfare benefits.

Who can claim Housing and Council Tax Benefits?

Housing Benefit is paid to people who are claiming benefits, have low wages or who have little money to live on. Your income and savings are compared to the amount of money the government says you need to live on. So the amount of help you get will depend on:

- Your Income- the money you and your partner have coming in
- Your savings and your partner's savings
- Your circumstances such as your age, ages and size of your family, any disabled members of the family, whether anyone who lives with you can help with living costs.
- Your rent

She further clarified that It did not matter if some one are on a benefit, such as Job Seekers Allowance or Guaranteed Pension Credit, or if working. If someone are on a low income, they may be able to claim Housing Benefit.

They will need to supply evidence of their wages and pensions but most of the information about their benefits we can get directly from the Department for Work and Pensions. We may also ask for information and evidence of their partner's income and the income of other people who live with you.

It is very important that we know about all the people who live in your home. It is especially important if people move out or new people move in. We may be able to reduce the amount of Council tax you pay by awarding discounts or exemptions. Some people, for example those who live alone and people with disabilities, qualify for Council Tax discounts. If you have other adults living with you who are on a low income other than your partner, you may be able to claim a second adult rebate

We also need to know if the people who live in your home are your partner or dependant children, or other relatives or friends or if they are other joint tenants or your landlord.

Your Rent

We need to see proof of their rent so that we know how much Housing Benefit to pay to them and to check that they are liable to pay rent. It is often very difficult to get details and evidence of rent especially where people rent rooms from other tenants. If they rent a house, flat or room we will need proof such as a letter or tenancy agreement from the person they pay rent to confirming:

- How much your rent is
- How often you pay rent.

If they rent a room from another tenant we will also need to check that the person who gave them permission to stay had a tenancy agreement or letter themselves.

If they want their money paid to them we will need a letter from the person they pay their rent to confirming that their rent payments are up to date. If their rent is 8 weeks or more in arrears we are required in nearly all cases to pay first payment to their landlord. In most cases it is safer and quicker to make payments of Housing Benefit directly into their bank account.

Your Bank Accounts and Capital

Your savings or capital includes:

- Any savings you have in a bank or building society
- Savings certificates, stocks and shares,
- Property except the home you live in
- Tax refunds.

If they have Savings up to £6000 that will not affect the amount of Housing Benefit they get. They must tell us how much they have and their account details but they do not need to show us any evidence. People of pension age are allowed to have up to £10,000 before we take their capital into account.

If they have capital or bank accounts worth between £6000 and £16000 they must tell us how much they have and their account details and we will need to see evidence. We can accept:

- Last 2 months bank statements
- Building Society books
- Savings Certificates
- Share certificates

They cannot usually get Housing Benefit if they have savings or investments over £16,000, unless they are receiving Guarantee Pension Credit.

If they are entitled to Guarantee Pension Credit, Job Seekers Allowance (Income Based), Employment Support Allowance (Income Based) or Income Support we do not need any information or evidence about their capital or bank accounts.

Identification and National Insurance Number

If they make a claim for Housing Benefit they may be asked to provide:

- Their Passport stamped with your leave to enter or remain in the UK,
- Their HM Forces discharge book

They may also be asked to show that They have applied for a National Insurance number.

Making a Claim for Housing Benefit

To make a claim for Housing Benefit they must fill out an application form. Please complete as much of the form as you can. If we need further information or evidence we will contact them but this may take time.

If they claim Pension Credits or Job Seekers Allowance they can claim Housing Benefit via the Pension Service or Department of Work and Pensions. This means that they may not need to complete a separate application form for Housing Benefit. If they want to check on the progress of their claim and they make a claim via the Pension Service or DWP they can contact them and they will let them know how their claim is going.

As the rules are complex we advise them to make a claim and we will let them know if they are entitled.

Changes of Circumstances

It is very important that they tell us as soon as possible about any changes in their circumstances such as:

- Rent increases
- People who join or leave your household
- Changes in your income

There are also two new short forms they can complete if:

- They move house
- Their income changes.

The new forms help us collect all the information we need to make changes to their claim without collecting information we do not need.
